

Perpetuating Excellence

From the moment it was established in 1930 as the first public coeducational liberal arts college in the City of New York, Brooklyn College has stood for hard work and excellence in pursuit of all the possibilities that the New World could offer. Commencement 2002 brought immeasurable pride to a city and a borough that had recently lost so much. Among the 1,530 baccalaureate and 936 graduate degree recipients who celebrated a new beginning was Martine Jean, an Africana studies and history major who earned a 3.71 overall GPA, was a member of the Scholars Program and the Ford Colloquium, and has received an Andrew W. Mellon Minority Fellowship. This fall she will enter Yale University on a full scholarship to pursue a doctorate in modern Latin American history.

The success of every student contributes to the enduring role that Brooklyn College plays within the community and in the city at large. As the graduates of 2002 take their place among a distinguished body of alumni, they will continue to strengthen the College's reputation as one of the great public institutions of higher education in America.

Appreciated Securities
Your gift of long-term appreciated securities (stocks, mutual funds, or bonds) is exempt from capital gains taxes and, in most cases, enables you to take a charitable deduction equal to the market value of the securities at the time of transfer.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

*A charitable remainder
 trust provides a lifetime
 income to beneficiaries
 and a charitable deduction to the donor.*

*The donor
 selects the payout rate,
 usually
 between 5
 and 7 percent.
 The higher the
 payout rate,
 the lower the
 deduction.*

*Estate taxes
 are diminished.*

Gifts of Real Estate

*A gift of commercial or residential
 real estate to the Foundation
 offers substantial financial benefits. If the property
 is given outright, the donor receives
 a charitable
 deduction
 based on the appraised
 value of the property.
 If you leave your home to the BCF
 through your will or estate
 plan, you can retain the right to live in it for your lifetime.*
